

NEWS

Go

Search

Quick Finder

NME.COM

WEBSITE OF THE YEAR 2001

NO.1 PPA
AWARD
WINNER

NEWS
 FEATURES
 REVIEWS
 INTERVIEWS EVENTS
 GET SUB
 CDD
 AUDIO-VIDEO CHARTS
 EMAIL
 SHOP
 MY NME
 MUSIC SEARCH

SHOP SEARCH

TICKET SEARCH

 Top 20 Sellers
 Just on Sale

YOKO GOES UNDERGROUND!

YOKO ONO is amongst the artists who have contributed to a major exhibition on the LONDON UNDERGROUND.

Starting on November 1 for one month, 42 artists from across the world will contribute works to 'Art-Tube 01'. The idea of the event is to decorate all six carriages of one Piccadilly Line tube train, with each carriage featuring seven artists exhibiting two art panels each in the area usually saved for advertising.

Other artists who are involved in the project include Damian Hirst, punk performance poet John Cooper Clarke and Vivienne Westwood.

To see images from the exhibition, click here.

To see more on rock click here

Yoko Ono - Making that hop from Cockfosters to Finsbury Park is much nicer

-  add to Scrapbook
-  print friendly version
-  subscribe to NME
-  send this story to a friend
-  buy tickets here
-  subscribe to e-mail news

MORE ON THIS ARTIST

Ono, Yoko

NEWS

Yoko Ono artwork being brought up London Tube

Paul McCartney takes aim at Michael Jackson

Yoko Ono gets set to release first album in five years

More

REVIEWS

Rising - Mike

SHOP

Search NME Shop

PHOTOS

More

OTHERS

Search for your chosen artist on eBay

CLICK HERE

— No Buffer Board —
— Not a Cheat —